Dear Mr. Dulles,

I am an eleven year old boy in New York, who's a great and ardent admirer of yours.

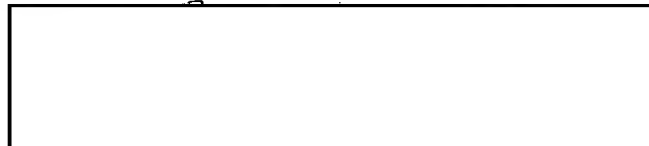

I follow all your statements in the newspapers, and I have read many books about the "Central Intelligence Agency".

When you said that we should meet Russia on the Economic, and not only the Military front, made me think how right you are.

And so sir, I would be honored if you would send me your *autograph.

My name and address is;

William Freeman
